LIME.—Now is the time of year to do your whitewashing and remember there is no lime superior to the White Rock. It is pure white and there is no waste to it. We sell it both in barrels and bulk.
STUART & WOODFORD.

THE RIGHT ONE.—Your attention is called to the list of new subscribers added to the exchanges of the East Tennessee Telephone Company in Bourbon county since March 1st, 1904, published elsewhere in this issue, which is certainly convincing evidence that you make no mistake when you give this company your order for a telephone. They now have one thousand subscribers in this county, nine hundred and fifty of which are already in operation, and the others will be just as soon as the fourth section of switch board is completed, which was necessary to be added to the Paris exchange, as well as branch exchange at Ruddles Mills, which will be installed at once for the benefit of those who live in that part of the county.

DEATHS.

—Mrs. Frances Chism, aged 94, died of old age Monday at Winchester. She drew a pension on account of the services of Commodore James Chism in the War of 1812. Her death leaves only one pensioner of that War living in Clark county, Mrs. Nancy Baxter, and her death is daily expected.

—Mrs. Annie Moran, wife of Mr. Thos. Moran, died at her home on eighth street, Wednesday, after several weeks illness. She is survived by her husband and seven children. Funeral will be held this morning at 9 o'clock, at Catholic church, services by Rev. Father E. A. Burke.

—Mrs. J. S. Craycraft, aged 48, who died at White Sulphur, Scott county, was buried in the Paris cemetery yesterday afternoon. The remains were brought over on the afternoon train of the Frankfort & Cincinnati R. R.

—Mrs. Mellie Johnson Winston, aged 65, wife of Mr. J. L. Winston, died at her home in Covington Wednesday morning. She is survived by her husband, who was at one time a popular passenger conductor on the K. C. She has been a very delicate woman for years. She was an aunt of Mr. W. A. Johnson, of this city, and a great-aunt of Mr. F. P. Walker. The remains will arrive here this morning, on the 11 o'clock train, and the funeral will be held immediately at the Second Presbyterian church. Services by Rev. Dr. E. H. Rutherford. Burial at Paris cemetery.

NOTICE.—Dr. J. T. McMillan will be absent from his office until about the first of June. He first goes to the State Dental Association meeting at Louisville, and then to Martinsville, Ind., to be treated for rheumatism.

CHURCH CHIMES.

—Elder Carey Morgan will preach the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the Bourbon Female College, at the Christian Church, Sunday morning.

—The fourth of the series of sermons on "Home," by Elder Carey Morgan, will be preached Sunday night, and his subject will be, "What Influence is Most Harmful to Our Boys?" Elder Morgan has written to a number of leaders of thought in different parts of the country, asking them the above question, and on this occasion will read their answers. This will give you what some of the leading minds of the country think about this important question, and is calculated to be very helpful. Large crowds are still attending these night services and enjoying and being benefitted by the practical series of sermons.

LIVE STOCK, CROP, ETC.

—J. J. Younker shipped yesterday a two-year-old colt by Hindoo, out of Queen Dixon, to Mr. John Rodagap, at Latonia. This was an exceptional fine looking colt, and is sure to be heard from later on.

—R. N. Ratliff, of Carlisle, sold a mule colt this week to Eugene Davis, for $142 50.

—Boardman & Hopkins, of Little Rock, have purchase 30,000 pounds of wool at 22 to 24 1/2 cents per pound.

—The latest report of the Department of Agriculture shows the crop conditions up to May 1st more uniformly unfavorable throughout the United States than ever before. Wheat, which is short in acreage, averages very poorly as to condition.

MAY KNOCK OUT TOBACCO TRUST.—The recent movement of the Continental Company in cornering all the burley in sight may prove the undoing of the combine or tobacco trust. The Burley Leaf Association has decided to bring suit against the trust, and also to press the Sherman anti-trust law. It is believed that it can be shown that the methods of the Continental are illegal and a violation of the anti-trust laws and the courts shall so decide. Every dealer, it is said, who has given options on last year's crop will be dragged into the case. An early test of the case will be made and upon the result will depend the delivery of the purchases where the Continental is not already in possession of the tobacco.

Laborers Wanted.

The contractors for Lock No. 11, at College Hill, East of Richmond, are now at work in full force. The work will be conducted on a large scale, the intention being to employ 300 men on the work. This will afford a splendid opportunity for all first-class laborers, carpenters, hoisting engineers, etc., to secure steady employment.

20-2t College Hill, Ky.

The New Episcopal Bishop.

The 76th annual council of the Episcopal diocese of Kentucky Tuesday chose Dr. John G. Murray, of Baltimore, as bishop to succeed the late Bishop Dudley. A dispatch from Baltimore quotes Rev. Dr. Murray as saying Monday that he would not accept the bishopric.

Dr. John G. Murray is now the rector of St. Michael's and All Angels' church, the largest Episcopal church in Baltimore. He is a native Marylander, but the greater part of his life has been spent in the South. His selection Thursday is the second time that Dr. Murray has been elected a bishop. After the death of Bishop Hugh Miller Thompson, of Mississippi, Dr. Murray came within two votes of an election as bishop of Alabama.

Dr. Murray has been twice married. His first wife and several children were lost about 20 years ago, when the steamer Belmont was blown over on the river opposite Henderson. He has since married again and has four children.
